JULY 11 - 13, 2012

Don't miss participating in the 15th annual Hubert Davis Christian Basketball Camp. It's been my pleasure to host this camp and to introduce campers to the Dean E. Smith Center and Carolina basketball. My greatest joy with this camp has been to see students return each year - to watch them grow, both as athletes and as young men. God has given me a tremendous career in basketball - in college, professionally, and now in broadcasting. It's my privilege to share what I've learned and to expose campers to the simple truth that God loves them and has a plan for their lives.

My camp will wear you out! The days are designed so that each camper will receive adequate instruction in the fundamentals of basketball - dribbling, shooting, passing and teamwork. Campers will have the opportunity to learn from me, other professional athletes, experienced staff members and other campers. Students move through stations throughout the day for skill development and then have the chance, in multiple games, to put into practice what they are learning.

So campers between the ages of 10 - 17, please join me at the Smith Center July 11 - 13 and experience the most exciting days of your summer!
