

Fill in your scavenger hunt in any order you like.

Use the map on the back of the page to trace your journey through the arboretum.

Season of the year _____

Weather _____

Time of Day _____

Can you find a purple flower? Does it have a smell?

What does it smell like? _____

What is its name? _____

Look for a label for the flower. Labels show the common and scientific name of the plants and the country of origin. Try to say these names out loud.

Find a plant that is from North America? (look on the name tag) _____

Find a plant from another part of the world. Why do you think this plant is here?

What is it called? _____

Where is it from? _____

Can you find something in the arboretum put here by people on purpose? _____

Or accidentally? _____

Find a plant with berries. What color are the berries? _____

Do any plants have berries AND flowers? _____

Enjoy a rest on one of the arboretum's wooden benches. Circle the name of the animals that you see while you are resting.

Chipmunk

Squirrel

Rabbit

Bird

Insect

Human

Dog

others _____

If this arboretum were your backyard, what would you do here?

Cross the creek.

Is there water in it? Yes No

Is it clear or muddy? _____

Put an arrow on the map on the back of this page to show which way the water is moving.

What tools or equipment would be helpful for exploring in the arboretum?

Coker Arboretum is a part of the North Carolina Botanical Garden
University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill
15/501 & Old Mason Farm Rd

www.ncbg.unc.edu

919.962.0522

Raleigh Street

